
Love is patient;
LOVE IS KIND;
LOVE IS NOT ENVIOUS OR BOASTFUL OR ARROGANT OR RUDE.
It does not insist on its own way;
IT IS NOT IRRITABLE OR RESENTFUL;
it does not rejoice in wrongdoing,
but rejoices in the truth.
IT BEARS ALL THINGS, believes all things
HOPES ALL THINGS,
ENDURES ALL THINGS.

Hello.

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends.

1 Corinthians 13:4-8a

No matter how many times the famous words of 1 Corinthians 13 are read or spoken, its simple message never fades: love is so grand that there is no one, simple, straightforward way to express it. There have been countless songs, poems and glances spent trying to understand, share and feel love. No one phrase is enough to pronounce this phenomenon in all its many, splendid forms. Love, simply, is.

Love is given and received every day - with our families and our friends, but also with those who are 'strangers' to us. The Bible is quite clear on the strength and breadth of love, the nature of which is a gift from God and the actions of which express love for all of our neighbours - near and far, those we know and those we don't know.

As the Uniting Church in South Australia, love takes on many forms and functions within our midst - this calendar is one small celebration of that.

JESUS WAS ONCE ASKED, “WHO IS MY NEIGHBOUR?” Sometimes we forget that people who need our love and care live right beside us. Pancake Day SA is about sharing the love and care of Jesus with our neighbours, right here in South Australia.

By simply cooking pancakes during Lent to raise funds for Pancake Day, around 400 businesses, schools, community groups and churches share love around. These funds enable UnitingCare agencies to deliver special community service programs that otherwise couldn't happen.

SPICER UNITING CHURCH IN ST PETERS has been presenting their Easter production biennially since 1996. Titled ‘Easter Sights and Sounds’, the production is big on crowd participation, involving the audience throughout a narrative undergirded by a core cast of church members from Spicer and beyond. The Easter pilgrimage offers an opportunity for visitors to transport themselves to Old Jerusalem without leaving Adelaide, and transform themselves into pilgrims, witnessing the last week in Jesus’ life prior to the resurrection.

Each year, nearly 600,000 people contribute to their local communities as volunteers. In March last year, Uniting Church youth groups across the city and suburbs joined in the volunteering fray with “Yes We Can”, an initiative seeking to encourage outward-focused church activities and engage young people with social justice. Setting up stands outside supermarkets, teens and youth leaders collected non-perishable goods to be donated to UnitingCare to help fulfil the needs of marginalised and vulnerable South Australians.

On Thursday 19 July 2012, Rev Rronang Garrawurra, Chair of Uniting Aboriginal and Islander Christian Congress, stood side by side with Rev Prof Andrew Dutney, President of the Assembly, on the steps of parliament house in a prayerful lament of the recently passed Stronger Futures Legislation. The presence of the National Assembly members, Uniting Aboriginal and Islander Christian Congress and concerned citizens behind the newly installed leaders demonstrated that the Uniting Church wants a fairer future for all Australians – and isn't afraid to ask for it.

The people that make up the Uniting Church in South Australia weave their faith-in-action across the state through community programs and partnerships. Last year, we launched ‘CommUnity Day’ to celebrate this.

The first CommUnity Day event celebrated the 35th anniversary of the Uniting Church in Australia at the June Presbytery & Synod meeting – this led a myriad of different CommUnity Day events for city, suburban and rural communities.

One example was Athelstone Uniting Church’s International Dinner (pictured) which featured a tantalising array of food from all continents. The CommUnity event raised money for UnitingWorld programs.

Love delights in truth

The Uniting Church in South Australia is delighted with the number of new ministers training, candidating and being ordained as Ministers of the Word and Deacons. With more than 20 candidates ordained in the last three years, and 24 candidates currently working through their studies and actively engaged in ministry, there is a promising plethora of new leaders training to journey with future churches, faith communities, agencies and ministries.

THE UNITING COLLEGE FOR LEADERSHIP & THEOLOGY has changed more than its name since its relaunch from Parkin-Wesley in 2009. While seeking to maintain a rigour in theological and academic excellence, Uniting College is continuing to develop and expand. With a strong focus on missional practice, the College is placing a firm emphasis on innovative discipleship to invigorate ministries and cultivate leadership. In a world where the Church is in need of growth and change, Uniting College is rising to the challenge with an increase in students, candidates and ministers seeking continuing education.

Rev Dave Williamson and Rev Amel Manyon believe in the importance of culture and language in faith communities. The pair is heavily involved in the Northern Suburbs Dinka Speaking Faith Community; Amel in her first ministerial placement and Dave in very active fundraising support.

In 2012, Dave participated in Ironman Australia under the banner of 'Dinka226', a self-started fundraiser aptly named for its purpose – the Dinka Speaking Faith Community – and race distance – 226km of running, cycling and swimming in the Ironman competition. The finances raised through Dinka226 have enabled Amel, Australia's first female Sudanese Uniting Church Minister, to lead a growing faith community in their native language.

EVERY OCTOBER LONG WEEKEND, the Uniting Church holds the South Australian Youth Camp Out (SAYCO), a weekend away for 12-17 year olds to explore their faith within a broader Christian community. Within a weekend of community time, games, music and more, the 48 hour camp helps teens address their questions around life, faith and God.

Open to teenagers from across the state, the event is brought to life by Mission Resourcing SA and a volley of volunteers.

PLAYGROUP IN THE PARK is affectionately known as the “Big Day Out for preschoolers”. Drawing over 4000 children each year, it is Adelaide’s premier event for under-5s. It attracts a diverse group across socio-economic, cultural and ethnic backgrounds, and celebrates togetherness, community and God’s love for all families. The event, always set within National Children’s Week, is proudly hosted, organised and facilitated by the Western districts Christian churches as a practical way of showing God’s love in action.

Each year, Resthaven holds Christmas celebrations at each of its ten residential aged care sites across South Australia. These luncheons offer residents the opportunity to enjoy a Christmas meal together prior to the day, as many spend Christmas with family and friends. Enjoyed by residents and executive staff members, including the CEO and representatives from the Resthaven Board, these luncheons are a great celebration.

Christmas events are also held for clients of Resthaven’s Community Services, including afternoon teas, meals and outings.
