

Trinity Sunday:

2. Jesus, Son of God, Prince of Peace

Date: 7th June, 2009

Reading: John 3: 1-17

Jesus is remembered for his stories, his insistence on justice for the powerless and marginalised, his death on the cross and as the Light of the World.

I wonder what the multi-coloured centre of these biscuits tells us about Jesus?

Stained Glass Window Biscuits

Makes about 20

Preparation time: 20 minutes
plus 30 minutes refrigeration

Cooking time: 12 minutes

Ingredients:

- 125 butter
- ¼ cup dark brown sugar
- ½ cup treacle
- 1 egg
- 2½ cups plain flour
- 1 tablespoon ground ginger
- 1 teaspoon mixed spice
- 1 teaspoon bicarb soda
- assorted boiled lollies

Method:

- Beat butter, sugar and treacle with an electric mixer until light and creamy.
- Add egg, beat well.
- Mix in flour, spices and bicarb.
- Turn onto lightly floured surface and knead for 1 minute.
- Wrap dough in plastic and refrigerate for 30 minutes.
- Preheat oven to 180 degrees C.
- Crush boiled lollies.
- Roll out dough to 4mm.
- Cut large shapes from the dough (stars, hearts, crosses, angel).
- Cut out a smaller shape in the middle.
- Put biscuits onto baking tray lined with baking paper.
- Spoon lollies in heaped mounds into the holes.
- Use a straw to cut hole for hanging.
- Bake for 10-12 minutes until lollies have melted and biscuits are golden.
- Cool on tray for 5 minutes, then transfer to a wire rack to cool completely.
- Thread string or curling ribbon through holes for hanging.
