

‘Worship at home’

October 18th 2026

We come to worship God, who we find in the holy spaces and the ordinary places of our lives, sometimes in unexpected ways.

The LORD reigns: let all peoples, and all the earth tremble in holy awe. The LORD is great, exalted over all the nations.

Let all peoples praise the great name of the LORD, the one name to be held in holy awe. Holy is the LORD, our God.

*From Psalm 99:1-3
© Jeff Shrowder 1999.*

We come to worship God who is holy. We use the word holy to mean ‘sacred’, ‘pure’ or ‘virtuous’, and ‘deserving of awe and adoration’ (www.collinsdictionary.com/). The Hebrew word for holy is qđš (qadesh) which means ‘to purify or set apart’. God is beyond all created things, infinite and unconceivable, yet at the same time personal and loving, inviting each of us into intimate relationship. It can be difficult for us to comprehend this mystery which is the foundation of our faith.

How do you understand God as holy?

How does this shape your relationship with God?

One of the great ancestors of our faith is Moses, who was called by God from a burning bush, empowered to perform wonders to guide the Israelites out of Egypt, given the strength, wisdom and faith to lead a wandering people to an unknown destination. Yet Moses yearns for a more complete knowledge of who God is. Like his fellow Israelites who fashioned a golden calf as a symbol of God to carry with them, Moses seeks evidence of God’s presence and splendour. God’s assurance does not convince Moses, and he asks for something of God to be revealed.

Exodus 33:12-23

Moses said to the Lord, "It is true that you have told me to lead these people to that land, but you did not tell me whom you would send with me. You have said that you know me well and are pleased with me. Now if you are, tell me your plans, so that I may serve you and continue to please you. Remember also that you have chosen this nation to be your own." The Lord said, "I will go with you, and I will give you victory." Moses replied, "If you do not go with us, don't make us leave this place. How will anyone know that you are pleased with your people and with me if you do not go with us? Your presence with us will distinguish us from any other people on earth." The Lord said to Moses, "I will do just as you have asked, because I know you very well and I am pleased with you." Then Moses requested, "Please, let me see the dazzling light of your presence." The Lord answered, "I will make all my splendour pass before you and in your presence I will pronounce my sacred name. I am the Lord, and I show compassion and pity on those I choose. I will not let you see my face, because no one can see me and stay alive, but here is a place beside me where you can stand on a rock. When the dazzling light of my presence passes by, I will put you in an opening in the rock and cover you with my hand until I have passed by. Then I will take my hand away, and you will see my back but not my face."

Good News Bible

Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide you, though the sinful human eye your glory may not see,
you alone are holy, there is none beside you perfect in power, in love and purity.

*Together in Song 132
Reginald Heber 1783-1826
Public domain*

This story reminds us that God is too holy to be visualised and cannot be contained or described in physical terms. Even Moses cannot see or know all there is to know about the mystery of God, who remains unseen, elusive and incomprehensible. However, Moses was able to experience enough of the glory and holiness of God to be encouraged in his faith and assured of God's presence. He was given sufficient to continue in his journey.

All of us, then, reflect the glory of the Lord with uncovered faces; and that same glory, coming from the Lord, who is the Spirit, transforms us into his likeness in an ever greater degree of glory.

2 Corinthians 3:18

Several hundred years after the story of Moses, a young woman finds herself expecting a 'holy child' who 'will be called the Son of God' (Luke 1:35). In this baby we see the glory of God revealed more fully. Jesus Christ embodies the presence of God in human form. As followers of Christ, we are called to grow in holiness, becoming more like Christ. This is only possible in and through the power of the Holy Spirit, as we are sustained, guided and nurtured in our faith.

So get rid of your old self, which made you live as you used to - the old self that was being destroyed by its deceitful desires. Your hearts and minds must be made completely new, and you must put on the new self, which is created in God's likeness and reveals itself in the true life that is upright and holy.

Ephesians 4:22-24

In what ways do you desire to become more Christ-like?

Reflect on which aspects of your life you might be rid of, in order for the Holy Spirit to make you completely new.

Ask God to help you leave these behind, and to live a life that is upright and holy.

Be Holy

1 PETER 1:13-16

But just as he who called you is holy, so be holy in all you do; for it is written:

"Be holy, because I am holy." 1 Peter 1:15,16 3

Cares about our deepest needs

adapted from © 2002 Nathan Nettleton LaughingBird.net 4